Cremation (funeral director's charges plus the cremation fee) ²	£1125

FEES YOU MUST PAY

For an attended or unattended burial funeral, the burial fee.¹

In this local area, the typical cost of the burial fee for local residents is: £2700.00

For a new grave, you will also need to pay for the plot; for an existing grave with a memorial in place, you may need to pay a removal/replacement fee. In addition, the cemetery may charge a number of other fees.

For an attended cremation funeral, the cremation fee.²

In this local area, the typical cost of a cremation for local residents is: £980.00

The charges shown are based on Kirklees Council charges, other local authority charges will be different

Please discuss any specific religious, belief-based and/or cultural requirements that you have with the funeral director.

ADDITIONAL FUNERAL DIRECTOR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

This funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:

Additional mileage over 20 miles (price per mile)	£2.50
Additional transfers of the deceased person's body (e.g. to their home, to a place of worship etc.) (price per transfer)	£100
Collection and delivery of ashes	POA
Embalming	£250
Funeral officiant (e.g. celebrant, minister of religion etc.)	£250
Services supplied outside of normal office hours	Prices on request

The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

¹This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for reopening and closing an existing grave.

²In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay doctors' fees as well. This is the charge for the doctor to sign the Medical Certificates for Cremation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS

1. Responsibility for payment

In requesting the funeral arrangements you are responsible for payment of our account. This will be sent to you after the funeral and will detail all costs involved with the funeral arrangements. If you send our invoice to a solicitor or someone else for payment we would appreciate your advising us that you have done so. Please remember that you remain liable for payment of the invoice. We may need to contact you again regarding payment if the solicitor does not attend to payment.

If you intend to make an application for a D.W.P. Funeral Payment please be aware that if the application is successful any payment will normally only settle the funeral account in part. In such circumstance, or where an application is not successful, you accept full liability for any outstanding balance.

2. Deposits

Deposits of 50% of the total estimated cost of the funeral are to be paid (Direct cremations are required in full in advance of the funeral) 72 hours before the funeral takes place, by bank transfer, cheque or cash.

3. Estimates

The cost of the funeral arrangements on the Confirmation and Estimate form is an estimate only. You should be aware that you may be requested to pay more than the estimate when the funeral has been performed and all costs have been finalised, as a result of any extra services or changes to the arrangements which you request. Wherever practicable we will advise you in advance of the funeral of the effect of any of your requests on the final cost.

4. External payments

As part of the funeral arrangements, you may have requested us to instruct other suppliers to provide services for the funeral. These services are listed on the Confirmation and Estimate form with an estimate of the cost for the services. The actual cost will be included in the invoice for the funeral arrangements, although it is our policy to request payment in advance for these services.

As these other services are not provided by us we do not accept responsibility or liability for the supplier when he or she provides the services.

5. Valuables

We do not accept responsibility for jewellery or other valuable items that are left with us, particularly where they are displayed for viewing.

6. Payments

You will receive an invoice within seven days of the funeral and payment is due within another 7 days. We accept cash, cheques and bank transfers. We also reserve the right to request full or part payment prior to the funeral taking place (Funeral Director's Discretion).

7. Interest

If our invoice is not paid as mentioned above we may charge interest at the rate of 12% per annum (1% pcm) from the date of the invoice until payment is received. If the invoice remains outstanding we may transfer your debt to another company for collection. If we do this it will be pursuant to a deed of assignment between us and the other company and this clause is notice to you of that assignment.

DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

1. Ultimate owner: Gateway Funeral Services is owned by Gateway Funeral Services Ltd. We are independent and family owned.
